An Open Book

Artist's Books by Tennille Davis Shuster

Join us for an opening reception Saturday, April 21, at 6:30pm

Artists' books have been defined as books as art as opposed to books of art. The work in this exhibit investigates artists' books as a vehicle for self-expression in the otherwise commercial-based field of graphic design. In this Florida Atlantic University, Master of Fine Arts thesis exhibition, Tennille Shuster explores issues of authorship through a variety of book forms, focusing on the documentation of personal experiences and events that have shaped her life. Tennille Shuster's award-winning work has been displayed in museums, art centers and libraries nationwide, and has been featured in numerous publications, including Time Out New York and American Craft magazine.
